

Enabling Youth
Social Action
Educator Programme

www.transform-our-world.org

This is a reflective workbook for you to use throughout the Educator Programme and is solely for your personal use (we won't ask for it to be handed in).

At the bottom of each session there is a feedback form link – we would really appreciate if you could take 5 minutes after each session to fill this in. Please note all forms are anonymous and will only be seen by the Transform Our World team.

Session 1 – Introducing Youth Social Action

Learning Outcomes

- Meet for the first time as a group and get to know each other.
- Talk through the Enabling Youth Social Action Programme.
- Understand what we mean by Youth Social Action

Feedback Form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/3SaQ8nws9c>

Use this section to reflect on what you have learned in today's session and how you can use this in your practice. What are the key takeaways?

Session 2 – Introducing the Dirt Is Good Project

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the theory behind the Dirt Is Good Project.
- Explore case study examples of Youth Social Action enabled by Dirt Is Good.
- Get familiar with the Dirt Is Good website.

Feedback Form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/pKYw2jdyTs>

Use this section to reflect on what you have learned in today's session and how you can use this in your practice. What are the key takeaways?

Session 3 – The Dirt Is Good Principles

Learning Outcomes

- Explore each principle in depth using case study examples to bring them to life.
- Understand how the principles interact with each other.
- Discuss how to apply the principles to help enable youth social action.

Feedback Form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/pNTdk832L8>

Use this section to reflect on what you have learned in today's session and how you can use this in your practice. What are the key takeaways?

Session 4 – Recruiting and Forming your Dirt Is Good Group

Learning Outcomes

- Examine a list of key things to consider before starting to recruit group members.
- Learn how to take diversity, equality, and inclusion into account when forming a group.
- Gain an appreciation of the do's and don'ts associated with advertising the opportunity

Feedback Form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/CATsGJbKCe>

Use this section to reflect on what you have learned in today's session and how you can use this in your practice. What are the key takeaways?

Session 5 – Coach, Don't Lead

Learning Outcomes

- Develop an understanding of what it means to be a Coach.
- Grasp how a Coach's role changes over time.
- Examine the 'do's and don'ts' Coaches should keep in mind when enabling youth social action.

Feedback Form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/T2ZpdAwVZh>

Use this section to reflect on what you have learned in today's session and how you can use this in your practice. What are the key takeaways?

TRANSFORM OUR WORLD

Proudly supporting youth social action

#iwill

Department for Digital, Culture
Media & Sport

COMMUNITY FUND

#iwill

Notcutt House, 36 Southwark Bridge Road, London, SE1 9EU, 0204 566 9904
Charity registered in England and Wales No. 1026148, in Scotland No. SC041260
Registered company in England and Wales No. 2838296, VAT No. 625 994 009