

Youth Climate Summit 2020 Careers Conversations: Tuesday 10 November 1-2pm

Youth Climate Summit ambassadors and London Schools Eco-Network members

Aimee, Aardash, Caroline, Max and Lucie in conversation with...

Nikki Tadema  Chief Operating Officer, City Harvest London Nikki is Chief Operating Officer at City Harvest London, a charity that puts surplus food to good use in a sustainable way by distributing to organisations that feed the hungry. After a 25-year career working in the food industry, including at M&S and Tesco, she has turned her knowledge, experience and skills towards the charity sector.	Andrew McMullen  Director of Environmental Impacts Team, LEGO Andrew is responsible for LEGO Group's ambition to be a zero impact business by 2032 for issues related to energy, water and waste in their own operations and supply chain. Previous roles include work on energy efficiency at Royal Mail and Tesco PLC. Before moving to environmental work, Andrew was a building controls and refrigeration specialist.	Zoe Mountford  Lead Sustainability Manager, Marks & Spencer Zoe is responsible for leading Plan A for the M&S Property Group. Plan A is our way to help build a sustainable future by being a business that enables our customers to have a positive impact on wellbeing, communities and the planet through all that we do.	Alan Stevens  Director, MediaCoach Alan was a founder member of Friends of the Earth UK in 1971. He graduated in Ecology, followed by an MSc in environmental science. He has worked in journalism since 1979 and became a school governor in 1982. He is a professional speaker and author, and runs the reputation management company MediaCoach that uses part of its income for tree-planting projects.	Anna Turrell  Head of Environment, Tesco Anna is responsible for Tesco's climate change agenda, sustainable agriculture, forests, marine and Tesco's partnership with WWF to halve the environmental impact of the average UK shopper basket. Previously Anna was Head of Sustainability for Nestlé UK & Ireland and also spent 10 years in sustainability consultancy in Europe and Asia, working with clients.
Katie Jepson  Senior Project Manager, Students Organising for Sustainability (SOS-UK) Katie leads on award-winning programme Green Impact at Students Organising for Sustainability (SOS-UK), the NUS sustainability charity. She is also on the organising team for the youth-led Mock COP26 conference. Previously Katie was a Project Officer at The Conservation Volunteers, working on food growing sites across Birmingham and studied Geography at Keele University.	Tom Ludwig  Business Development Associate, TerraCycle Europe Tom has worked for a number of recycling companies including First Mile in London and innovative recycling company TerraCycle. Tom studied War, Peace and International Relations at the University of Reading so always had a desire to have a positive impact on the world. Sustainability drew his attention as climate change is undoubtedly the biggest challenge we currently face, and he wanted to be a part of the solution.	Rosie Strickland  Creative Director, Disobedient Design Rosie is Creative Director of Disobedient Design, a design practice and consultancy for designing social change. She previously worked as art director for Greenpeace UK, designing, producing and taking part in direct actions such as blocking a cargo ship at sea and dismantling a dirty diesel engine from a VW golf outside the V&A Museum. Rosie brings unique perspectives on the use of design and creative practice in relation to direct action and social change.	Karina O'Gorman  Head of Corporate Responsibility for Europe, Middle East, Asia & Africa (EMEA), Global Community Impact & ESG Reporting & Engagement, Intercontinental Hotels Group (IHG) Prior to joining IHG in 2018, Karina was Head of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) for Pentland Brands and has led other CSR for L'Oréal UK & Ireland, Microsoft and BlackBerry, and overseen fundraising efforts for NGOs The MS Society and Médecins Sans Frontières in the Middle East.

Book your FREE place at: <https://www.transform-our-world.org/whats-on>